GDPR08 - Website Privacy and Cookies Policy and Procedure

1. Purpose

1.1 The purpose of this policy is to provide a template Privacy Policy that The Stable Family Home Trust can adapt to use on its website. The Privacy Policy will apply to all users of the website of The Stable Family Home Trust. Following recent guidance from the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO), the template Cookie Policy has been updated to include further detail on the cookies that The Stable Family Home Trust is required to give to users of its website. This policy is a standalone document and is intended to form part of a layered Privacy Policy.

1.2 By using the template Privacy Policy provided, The Stable Family Home Trust will ensure that the policy on its website is GDPR compliant.

1.3 To support The Stable Family Home Trust in meeting the following Key Lines of Enquiry:

Key Question	Key Line of Enquiry (KLOE)
WELL-LED	W2: Does the governance framework ensure that responsibilities are clear and that quality performance, risks and regulatory requirements are understood and managed?

1.4 To meet the legal requirements of the regulated activities that The Stable Family Home Trust is registered to provide:

- The Privacy and Electronic Communications (EC Directive) Regulations 2003.
- General Data Protection Regulation 2016
- Data Protection Act 2018

2. Scope

2.1 The following roles may be affected by this policy:

- All staff

2.2 The following people may be affected by this policy:

- Service Users

2.3 The following stakeholders may be affected by this policy:

- Family
- Advocates
- Representatives
- Commissioners
- External health professionals
- Local Authority
- NHS

3. Objectives

3.1 The objective of this policy is to provide assurance that The Stable Family Home Trust has a Privacy Policy in place for users of its website that is GDPR compliant.

3.2 This policy will assist with establishing ways of working in terms of the use, storage, retention and security of personal data and will ensure that all Data Subjects, including Service Users, understand the ways in which personal data collected by The Stable Family Home Trust via its website is processed.

GDPR08 - Website Privacy and Cookies Policy and Procedure

4. Policy

4.1 The Stable Family Home Trust understands that if it operates a website, it may need to update its Privacy Policy to ensure that it is compliant with GDPR. The Stable Family Home Trust will use this Privacy Policy as a template for its updated version. The Stable Family Home Trust understands that this Privacy Policy only needs to be uploaded by The Stable Family Home Trust to its website if it collects personal data via its website. The Stable Family Home Trust will use the template Fair Processing Notice to inform all other Data Subjects, including Service Users, about how The Stable Family Home Trust processes personal data other than personal data collected via the website.

4.2 The Stable Family Home Trust understands that the form attached to this policy constitutes the template Privacy Policy. The Stable Family Home Trust understands that terms in square brackets are optional (depending on whether they apply to The Stable Family Home Trust or not) or require completion by The Stable Family Home Trust. The Stable Family Home Trust will review the Privacy Policy in its entirety to determine which elements are applicable to its website, and which are not relevant.

For example:

- If the template Privacy Policy below refers to personal data that is not collected by The Stable Family Home Trust via its website, The Stable Family Home Trust will delete references to such personal data
- If the website of The Stable Family Home Trust does not use cookies, The Stable Family Home Trust will delete references to cookies and the Cookie Policy at The Stable Family Home Trust
- If The Stable Family Home Trust does not transfer personal data outside of the EEA, The Stable Family Home Trust will delete the section entitled "Where we store your personal data"
- If The Stable Family Home Trust is not required to appoint a Data Protection Officer, The Stable Family Home Trust will delete references to the Data Protection Officer or will consider replacing references to the Data Protection Officer with references to the Privacy Officer at The Stable Family Home Trust or other person nominated to have day-to-day responsibility for data protection and GDPR

If The Stable Family Home Trust uses personal data collected via its website in a way that is not described in the Privacy Policy, it will consider incorporating additional sections.

This Privacy Policy directs users to a webpage with a contact form or contact details if they wish to contact The Stable Family Home Trust. The Stable Family Home Trust will consider whether to provide an alternative contact method instead, such as an email address and/or phone number.

If The Stable Family Home Trust has any concerns or queries in respect of the template Privacy Policy, it will seek legal advice.

4.3 GDPR has changed the way cookies should be incorporated into websites which means that The Stable Family Home Trust must explain what cookies will be set and what the cookies will do to the users of its website. The Stable Family Home Trust must obtain consent from individuals to store certain cookies on devices. Cookies that are not strictly necessary need consent which is GDPR compliant which means that The Stable Family Home Trust can no longer rely on implied consent.

4.4 The Stable Family Home Trust should, therefore, update its processes for collecting consent for cookies. In practice this means:

- Users must take a clear and positive action to consent to non-essential cookies
- The websites and apps of The Stable Family Home Trust must tell users clearly what cookies will be set and what they do, including any third-party cookies
- Pre-ticked boxes or any equivalents, such as sliders defaulted to "on", cannot be used for non-essential cookies
- The users at The Stable Family Home Trust must have control over any non-essential cookies; and
- Non-essential cookies must not be set on landing pages before you gain the user's consent

Consent is not required for cookies that are defined as "strictly necessary" or that fall within the communication exemption. "Strictly necessary" cookies are those that are essential to providing the service requested by the user. Such cookies must be essential to fulfil their request. Those that are simply helpful or convenient, but not essential, or that are essential for the purposes of The Stable Family Home Trust, will still require consent. The communication exemption is about the transmission of a communication over an electronic communications network. For the exemption to apply, the transmission of the communication must be impossible without the use of the cookie. Simply using a cookie to assist the communication is insufficient for the exemption to apply.

GDPR08 - Website Privacy and Cookies Policy and Procedure

The Stable Family Home Trust should note, in particular, that cookies used for analytical purposes or those used for marketing and advertising will always need consent as they are considered to be non-essential. This guidance may change as the latest draft legislation is subject to some challenges on this point.

The Stable Family Home Trust should read the ICO's cookie guidance available at: <https://ico.org.uk/for-organisations/guide-to-pecr/cookies-and-similar-technologies/> for further information on the types of cookie that require consent.

5. Procedure

5.1 The Stable Family Home Trust will consider whether or not it collects personal data via its website (for example, via enquiry forms, requests to be sent newsletters, requests for provision of services) and whether it needs a Privacy Policy. The Stable Family Home Trust acknowledges that the use of cookies constitutes processing of personal data via the website.

5.2 The Stable Family Home Trust will review the template Privacy Policy. The Stable Family Home Trust will adapt the Privacy Policy before uploading it to its website to ensure that all aspects of the Privacy Policy are relevant and reflect the ways in which The Stable Family Home Trust processes personal data collected via its website. Where The Stable Family Home Trust has any concerns or queries in relation to its own Privacy Statement, The Stable Family Home Trust will seek legal advice.

5.3 The Stable Family Home Trust should use the template Fair Processing Notice to inform all other Data Subjects, including Service Users, about how The Stable Family Home Trust processes personal data other than personal data collected via the website.

GDPR08 - Website Privacy and Cookies Policy and Procedure

6. Definitions

6.1 Data Subject

- The individual about whom The Stable Family Home Trust has collected personal data

6.2 Data Protection Act 2018

- The Data Protection Act 2018 is a United Kingdom Act of Parliament that updates data protection laws in the UK. It sits alongside the General Data Protection Regulation and implements the EU's Law Enforcement Directive

6.3 GDPR

- General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) (EU) 2016/679 is a regulation in EU law on data protection and privacy for all individuals within the European Union. It was adopted on 14 April 2016 and after a two-year transition period became enforceable on 25 May 2018

6.4 Personal Data

- Any information about a living person including but not limited to names, email addresses, postal addresses, job roles, photographs, CCTV and special categories of data, as defined below

6.5 Process or Processing

- Doing anything with personal data, including but not limited to collecting, storing, holding, using, amending or transferring it. The Stable Family Home Trust does not need to be doing anything actively with personal data - at the point The Stable Family Home Trust collects it, it is processing it

6.6 Special Categories of Data

- Has an equivalent meaning to "Sensitive Personal Data" under the Data Protection Act 2018. Special categories of data include but are not limited to medical and health records (including information collected as a result of providing health care services), Care Plans and information about a person's religious beliefs, ethnic origin and race, sexual orientation and political views

6.7 Cookies

- Cookies are small files which are stored on a user's computer. They are designed to hold a modest amount of data specific to a particular client and website and can be accessed either by the web server or the client's computer

6.8 The Information Commissioner's Office (ICO)

- The ICO is the UK's independent body set up to uphold information rights

Further Reading

As well as the information in the 'Underpinning Knowledge' section of the review sheet we recommend that you add to your understanding in this policy area by considering the following materials:

What are cookies? <http://www.bbc.co.uk/webwise/guides/about-cookies>

ICO cookie guidance: <https://ico.org.uk/for-organisations/guide-to-pecr/cookies-and-similar-technologies/>

It is important for The Stable Family Home Trust to note that the ePrivacy Regulation which is currently in the draft stage may change the way that consent is required for certain cookies, including analytic cookies. At the time of updating this policy, the draft suggests that using analytic cookies as a simple first-party data analytics tool to learn about website audiences in a non-intrusive way may not require explicit consent. The proposal suggests that cookie consent can be exempted when the data tracked is purely for analytical purposes and the data collected cannot identify an individual. However, it is yet unclear whether external services, such as Google Analytics will benefit from this exemption.

If The Stable Family Home Trust only uses analytical cookies for the purpose of learning about website audiences and its website is low risk, we suggest that The Stable Family Home Trust may want to wait until the final draft of the ePrivacy Regulation is adopted, further guidance is issued, and website developers have the tools required before updating its cookie banner to seek explicit consent for analytic cookies.

Outstanding Practice

To be 'Outstanding' in this policy area you could provide evidence that:

- The Stable Family Home Trust has modified the template privacy policy to ensure that it includes all information relevant to the collection of personal data via its website and has uploaded a copy to its website
- The Stable Family Home Trust should ensure that clear links are available to the privacy policy on its website and that, if a person inputs personal data into the website, they are directed to the policy and required to accept its terms
- The wide understanding of the policy is enabled by proactive use of the QCS App

Forms

The following forms are included as part of this policy:

Cookies

The Website uses cookies to distinguish you from other users of the website. For detailed information on the cookies we use and the purposes for which we use them, please see our Cookie Policy [insert hyperlink to Cookie Policy].

Use Made of the Information

The Stable Family Home Trust may use the information we receive and/or collect about you to:

- Fulfil our obligations under any contract that we have entered into with you or with a Service User that you represent, and to provide you or the relevant Service User with information or services that you or the Service User has requested
- Send you newsletters and marketing information if you have consented to us doing so
- Notify you of products and services that we feel may interest you, or permit third parties to do so if you have provided the appropriate consent
- Monitor website usage and provide statistics to third parties for the purposes of improving and developing the website and the services we provide via the website

The Stable Family Home Trust processes personal information for certain legitimate business purposes, which include some or all the following:

- Where the processing enables The Stable Family Home Trust to enhance, modify, personalise or otherwise improve the website, its services or communications
- To identify and prevent fraud
- To enhance the security of the network and information systems of The Stable Family Home Trust
- To better understand how people interact with the websites of The Stable Family Home Trust
- To administer the website and carry out data analysis, troubleshooting and testing; and
- To determine the effectiveness of promotional campaigns and advertising

If we obtain consent from you to do so, we may provide your personal details to third parties so that they can contact you directly in respect of services in which you may be interested.

Where we are processing personal data that we have obtained via the website on the basis of having obtained consent from you, you have the right to withdraw your consent to the processing of your personal data at any time. If you would like to withdraw your consent or prefer not to receive any of the above-mentioned information (or if you only want to receive certain information from us) please let us know by contacting us via the following webpage [insert link to webpage]. Please bear in mind that if you object, this may affect our ability to carry out the tasks above for your benefit.

If you wish to have your information removed from our database or if you do not want us to contact you for marketing purposes, please let us know by clicking the "Unsubscribe" option in any email we send to you and providing the details requested or by contacting us via the following webpage [insert webpage link] and we will take steps to ensure that this information is deleted as soon as reasonably practicable.

We will not share, sell or distribute any of the information you provide to us (other than as set out in this policy) without your prior consent, unless required to do so by law.

We may carry out automated decision-making using the personal data you provide to us. We do so to [insert an explanation about the automated decision-making (including profiling) that you carry out. You should explain the logic involved and the significance and potential consequences for the Data Subject. For example, if you track their behaviour on your website to send targeted advertising, explain this process. If you do not carry out any automated decision making, you can delete this policy entry].

Third Party Sites

Website Privacy Statement - GDPR08

Our website may contain links to third party websites, including websites via which you are able to purchase products and services. They are provided for your convenience only and we do not check, endorse, approve or agree with such third-party websites nor the products and/or services offered and sold on them. We have no responsibility for the content, product and/or services of the linked websites. Please ensure that you review all terms and conditions of website use and the Privacy Policy of any such third-party websites before use and before you submit any personal data to those websites.

How Safe is your Information?

Where we have given you (or where you have chosen) a password which enables you to access certain parts of the website, you are responsible for keeping this password confidential. We ask you not to share a password with anyone.

Protecting your security and privacy is important to us and we make every effort to secure your information and maintain your confidentiality in accordance with the terms of the Data Protection Legislation. The website is protected by various levels of security technology, which are designed to protect your information from any unauthorised or unlawful access, processing, accidental loss, destruction and damage.

We will do our best to protect your personal data but the transmission of information via the Internet is not completely secure. Any such transmission is therefore at your own risk.

Disclosure of your Information

We may share your personal information with any member of our group, which means our subsidiaries, our ultimate holding company and its subsidiaries, as defined in section 1159 of the Companies Act 2006. We may share your information with selected third parties including:

- Business partners, suppliers and sub-contractors for the performance of any contract we enter with them or you
- Third parties who may wish to contact you in respect of services or products they offer or sell which may be of interest to you, provided we receive your consent to such disclosure; and/or advertisers and advertising networks that require the data to select and serve relevant adverts to you and analytics and search engine providers that assist us in the improvement and optimisation of the website

Please note we may need to disclose your personal information where we:

- Sell any or all our business or assets or we buy another business or assets in which case we may disclose your personal data to the prospective buyer or seller
- Are under a legal duty to comply with any legal obligation or to enforce or apply our terms and conditions; or
- Need to disclose it to protect our rights, property or the safety of our customers or others, including the exchange of information with other companies, organisations and/or governmental bodies for the purposes of fraud protection and credit risk reduction

Where we Store your Personal Data [if The Stable Family Home Trust does not transfer personal data outside the EEA, this policy entry can be deleted].

The data that we collect from you may be transferred to, and stored at, a destination outside the European Economic Area ("EEA") to [insert the reasons why personal data is transferred outside the EEA, for example, because it is hosted on a server outside the EEA]. By submitting your personal data, you agree to this transfer, storing or processing. The Stable Family Home Trust will take all steps reasonably necessary to ensure that your data is treated securely and in accordance with this Privacy Policy. If a finding of adequacy hasn't been made by the EC Commission in respect of the country to which the data is transferred, we will only transfer it where there are appropriate safeguards in place, including the use of EU standard contractual clauses or an intragroup agreement.

Your Rights in Respect of your Data

If any of the information you provide to us via the website changes, please let us know as soon as possible so that we can make the necessary changes to the information we hold for you on our database. If you wish to make any changes to your information, please contact us via the following webpage [insert webpage link].

If you wish to access or rectify the information we hold about you, or request that such information be transmitted directly to another data controller, please contact us via the following webpage [insert webpage link]. We shall process your request to access your information within one month of receipt, or we'll let you know within that timeframe if we need more information from you. We will process your request free of charge.

To request that your information is deleted or if you wish to restrict or object to the processing of your information, please contact us via the following webpage [insert webpage link].

If you have any complaints about our use of your personal data, please contact us. You also have the right to complain to the relevant supervisory authority in your jurisdiction. In the UK, the supervisory authority is the Information Commissioner's Office. Contact details for the ICO can be found at <https://ico.org.uk/>.

COOKIES WEBSITE STATEMENT

Cookies are small text files which a website may put on your computer or mobile device when you first visit the website. The cookies will help the website recognise your device the next time you visit. Web beacons or other similar files can also do the same thing. We use the term “cookies” in this policy to refer to all files that collect information in this way.

We use cookies to distinguish you from other users of the website. This helps us to provide you with a good experience when you use the website and also allows us to improve the services we provide to you. On revisiting the website, we will be able to obtain information about your previous visits and about your computer including where available, your IP address, operating system and browser type, for system administration [and to report aggregate information to our advertisers] [insert an explanation about the information your cookies collect if it is necessary to expand on this]. [If you do not report aggregate information to advertisers, you can delete the foregoing policy entry]. This is statistical data about your browsing actions and patterns and does not identify you. For the same reason, we may obtain information about your general internet usage by using a cookie file which is stored on the hard drive of your computer.

We use the following cookies:

- Strictly necessary cookies. These are cookies that are essential in order to enable you to move around the website and use its features, such as accessing secure areas of the website. Disabling them may mean you are not able to access parts of our website.
- [Analytical or performance cookies. We use these cookies to collect information about how visitors use the website, for instance which pages visitors go to most. This helps us to improve the way our website works, for example, by ensuring that users are finding what they are looking for easily. Some of these cookies are known as analytic cookies which allow us to monitor website traffic using industry accepted third parties.] [If you do not use analytical or performance cookies, you can delete this policy entry.]
- Functionality cookies. These cookies are used to recognise you when you return to our website and to remember changes you have made to things such as text size, fonts and other parts of the website you can change so we can personalise our content for you.
- [Targeting cookies. We use these cookies to record your visit to our website, the pages you have visited and the links you have followed. We will use this information to make our website and the advertising displayed on it more relevant to your interests. We may share this information with third parties for this purpose.] [If you do not use targeting cookies, you can delete this policy entry.]

For more details on the specific cookies we use, why we use them and when they will expire, please see Part 1 of Appendix 1 of this Cookie Policy.

[Please note that third parties (such as advertising networks and providers of external services) may also use cookies on the website, over which we have no control. These cookies are likely to be analytical cookies, performance cookies or targeting cookies. Part 2 of Appendix 1 of this Cookie Policy provides a list of the third parties who may use these cookies and the reasons for which they use them.] [If you do not use third parties for these services, you can delete this policy entry].

Most browsers accept cookies automatically, but you can change your cookie preferences by adjusting your browser settings to refuse the setting of all or some cookies if you prefer. You can usually do this by visiting the “options” or “preferences” menu on your browser. Please note, however, that if you do this and choose to block all cookies (including essential cookies) we cannot guarantee that your experience will be as fulfilling as it would otherwise be, and you may not be able to access all or parts of our website.

Where we collect personal data as part of our use of cookies on the website, we will do so in accordance with our Privacy Policy [insert hyperlink to Privacy Policy].
